Department of Defense on this front, but further interagency coordination, especially with the intelligence community, is needed to adequately address this risk. A good grade on Pakistan will require improvements on several fronts, including military success as measured by secured territory and elimination of al Qaeda safe havens; development success, as measured by numbers of hospitals, roads, power plants, and schools ( with well-trained teachers ), as well as by rising literacy rates ( particularly among women in the tribal areas ); and ideological success as measured by improvement in Pakistani views of the United States ( currently among the lowest in the world with only 16 percent favorability, according to recent Pew Global Attitudes surveys ). Work with Russia to reduce dangers of WMD. World at Risk recommendation 7 C President Obama has made relations with Russia a priority, focusing especially on cooperation in combating nuclear danger. The results so far, however, are limited, as the Russian government has proved...
