Why are thor--it means a citadel or fortified place on an eminence, to which the people might fly for their common safety. His works were much read; as appears by The Court Burlesqued, a satire attributed to Butler. So those who wear the holy robes That rail so much at Father Hobbs, Because he has exposed of late The nakedness of Church and State; Yet tho they do his books condemn, They love to buy and read the same. Our author, so late as in 1750, was, still so commanding a genius, that his works were collected in a handsome folio; but that collection is not complete. When he could not get his works printed at borne, he published them in-Latin, including his mathematical works, at Amsterdam, by Blaew, 1CG8, 4to. His treatises, De Cive, and On Human Nature, are...
