Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .my third visit to miles north of Ocala, in the midst of Fessenden Academy. This is a large colored population, located in Marion County, Florida, There is a campus of fifteen acres and a plant of two hundred more of fine farm and woodland. I have noted the growth of the work and plant each time that I have come here. There has always been something new and interesting. On the beautiful grounds there is something more than a dozen buildings for teachers and student body. A large garden with every variety of vegetable is now flourishing in mid-winter. Having just come from the land of snow and ice I could scarcely believe my eyes when I found myself in this land of sunshine, flowers and oranges. A number of bare-footed boys and girls on their way to school give picturesqueness to the scene. The school has a post office with three mails daily from local trains which stop daily on signal, and the telephone brings the place in touch with surrounding country. I find that the intellectual, industrial and spiritual life of the school is receiving much emphasis. The religious life of the school is expressed through the Sunday-school, preaching services, Christian Endeavor and daily chapel exercises; while the community needs are reached through the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and the services of the teachers and principal. A farmers conference and association is organized in the community with the academy as...
