Excerpt: .a limited circle of the waters, you know those waters stretch out league upon league in the distance, they lave shores thousands of miles away, they are filled with sea monsters, they bear myriad sails; these things are present in your imagination, but they are too great for you to grasp, and so you label them with the word Sea. About every human being there is something mysterious, deep, high, full of mystery; you do not understand it, and you call it Soul. In the human being is a curious spiritual machinery in which words, visions, and impressions are stored, in which thoughts are woven, in which plans are made, in which the strange processes of logic are carried on; you do not understand this, and you label it Mind. Back of you is the record of the human race, the millions who have...
