Excerpt: .panel--a characteristic and good specimen. RAPHAEL, (Rafaele Sanzio, or Santi, ) born at TTrbino in 1483. It is as difficult to characterize thia wonderfully endowed painter as it is to characterize Shakspeare; he takes the same rank in Art that Shakspeare takes in literature. Standing quite alone in the versatility, as well as the greatness of his powers--unequalled in poetical dignity, grace and expression, as in fer tility of invention--.one is as tired of tacking epithets to his name as to that of Shakspeare, and the divine, and the immortal, are words which rather ex press our own adoration than his desert;--add the personalqualities of the man --his bright, gentle, generous spirit--his modesty, his beauty of person, his young life crowned with glory, and his early death in the blaze of his fame, which still shines on without dimness or eclipse, and shall do...
