Then, quick as a flash, he prepared to close the heavy door, and fasten it with what means were at hand! 89 CHAPTER X. GIVING HIM ANOTHER CHANCE. Hey! what was that, Con! Elmer heard the shorter man say, inside the place. Oh, we re found out! It s all over, Phil! gasped the other fellow, in a sudden panic. Shut up, yuh fool! Reckon as how twar only the night wind. Here s the can; take hold and we ll kerry her out! I jest gotter do it, now! That was enough for the boy outside. He understood that they must be at the farther end of the little house, and evidently bending over the object of their solicitude. His chance had come! Elmer had already taken hold of the door, and laid out his plan of campaign. He expected every act to dovetail with the others, so as to form a complete whole. And not more than two seconds must elapse after...
