Excerpt: .of the law by appointing a sub-committee of five who were not officeholders to act as a finance committee and receive contribu Nation, March 8, 15, 1882. Richardson, vol. viii, p. 187. House Ex. Doc., 48 C., 1 S., no. 105. tions from government employees. Several state committees asked for contributions as usual. The Indiana Republican committee announced that a list of those who contributed and of those who did not would be sent to the national committee. The passage of the civil service reform law is an excellent example of a reform forced on politicians against their will by the pressure of public opinion aroused by a few earnest advocates. The politicians of neither party really wanted the reform, but few of them dared attack it openly. In the Republican national convention of 1880 the committee on resolutions cut out the plank on...
