I was suddenly plunged into the most brilliant light, but it did not hurt my eyes or burn my skin. I could not see the sun; it was as if the light was everywhere so nothing cast a shadow. I did not feel air moving against my skin; the absence of that seemed strange. I could not remember having died; I was alive in the body, and then I was here. Drink deeply from the fountain of Gods love as you open and read the Kairos Letters, written to women inmates who are believers in Jesus Christ.
