The main object of my mission was the collection of information and statistics with regard to the working effectiveness of the Regulations for the fur-seal fishery prescribed by the Award of the Paris Arbitration Tribunal. 3. It was particularly enjoined on me to investigate the breeding rookeries with a view to ascertaining, the extent and causes of the alleged mortality of unweaned pups. 4. I was further instructed to inspect and estimate the number of seals resorting to the islands, and in particular to the Pribyloff Islands, and to compare the phenomena that I witnessed with the information and statistics supplied for the season of 1895 by the American Agents. (54th Congress, 1 st Session, Sen. Dec. 137,...
