After meeting Dr. Books, author Bernice Capelle Dotz believes that this brilliant woman is just the right person to help her grandson, who has been struggling academically since elementary school. The results are so amazing that Dotz offers her home to Dr. Books as a second treatment office whenever she comes to California. House of Miracles reveals the modalities Dr. Books draws from as well as her own research to develop Books Neural Therapy, a unique, nonforce, nondrug therapy, which can actually reverse problems such as dyslexia and other learning differences. The statistics show the short-term improvements, but the true-life accounts tell of the long-term enhancements.
