Excerpt: . . . they aged, and the way they responded (or did not respond) to these financial incentives is of interest. With this thought in mind we discuss the determinants of retirement. The Determinants of Retirement The retirement literature has identified key demographic, socio-economic, and financial retirement incentives that influence the retirement decision. In this section, we explore how the two outcome variables of interest, work status and bridge job behavior, compare with respect to these predictors by cohort and by gender. We examine work status and hours worked among all respondents, and bridge job status among those who were on a full-time career job as of the first interview. Tables 3a and 3b show (for Core and War Babies samples, respectively) that 38 percent of the Core men and 76 percent of the male War Babies were still working in 2004. Among those with FTC jobs...
