The one a fine and pretty boy, Not passing three years old; The other a girl, more young than he, And framed in beauty s mould. The father left his little son, As plainly doth appear, When he to perfect age should come, Three hundred pounds a year. S/9 ----QyPi And to his little daughter, Jane, Five hundred pounds in gold, To be paid down on marriage day, Which might not be controlled: But if the children chanced to die, Ere they to age should come, Their uncle should possess their wealth, For so the will did run. Now, brother, said the dying man, Look to my children dear, Be good unto my boy and girl--No friends else have they here: To God and you I recommend My children dear, this day; But little while, be sure we have Within this world to stay. You must be father and mother both, And uncle, all in one: God knows what will become of them, When I am dead and gone. With that bespake their mother dear: O brother kind! quoth she, fe, You are the man must bring our To wealth or misery. babes And if you keep them carefully, Then God will you reward; But if you otherwise should deal, God will your deeds regard. With lips as cold as any stone They kissed their children small, God bless you both my children dear! With that...
