The Sultan guaranteed his safety, on condition that he would receive the faith of Islam; and the Raja, having quitted the fort, delivered the keys to the Sultan, and uttered the confession of faith, in imitation of the conqueror. This conquest happened in the year of the Hijra 877, A.D. 1472-73. Regarding the conversion of the Raja to Mohammedanism, it is sometimes said that, having come to Ahmadabad with the Sultan, he became a follower of Hazrat Shah Alam, as related in the Mirat Sikandari, and that his tomb, situated near the road leading from the Kolapur gate, is conspicuous on the right-hand side. After this, Mahmud Bigarraha called together the Sayyids and learned men of every quarter, in order to settle them in the country of Sorath; and, having turned his thoughts to populating it, rebuilt a...
