B, D, O M AND UDGET B Chairman Nussle, Ranking Member Spratt, and distinguished members of the committee, the Presidents 2005 budget, which was transmitted to the Congress yes-terday, continues to support and advance three overriding national priorities: win-ning the war on terror, protecting the homeland, and strengthening the economy. The President is committed to spending what is necessary to provide for our secu-rity - and restraining spending elsewhere. Since September 11, 2001, more than three-quarters of the increase in the Federal Governments discretionary spending has been directly related to our response to the attacks, enhanced homeland secu-rity, and the war on terror. The Presidents 2005 budget continues this spending trend: significant increases in essential funding for our security programs, combined with a dramatic reduction in the growth of discretionary spending unrelated to secu-rity. With Congress help in enacting the budget we transmit today, we will be well on the path to cutting the deficit in half within 5 years. The Presidents budget: Increases defense spending by 7 percent to support our men and women in uni-form and transform our military to ensure America has the best trained and best equipped armed forces in the world; Increases homeland security spending by nearly 10 percent to strengthen capa-bilities created to prevent future attacks; and Holds the rest of discretionary spending to half of 1 percent growth - less than half the rate of inflation - while...
