Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.

Hicks, Governor of Maryland: Delivered in the Senate Chamber, at Annapolis, Wednesday, January 13th, 1858
Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Delegates The will of the people of Maryland, whose voice you have to day declared, has elevated me to the highest office in their gift. For this great honor, freely bestowed, by a majority almost unprecedented in our State, I desire to express ray most grateful acknowledgments: and deeply sensible of the disproportion between my abilities, and the responsible duties they have devolved upon me, I must ask beforehand that they judge me with somewhat of the partiality they have already shown; and accept as the best acknowledgment I can make of their confidence, an entire devotion to their interest and the public service. In that service it shall be my highest ambition to reflect in my official conduct, the will of the people whose servant I am. And now, at my entrance into that office, with whose duties I am charged, it is due to myself, no less than to those who have chosen me, that I should frankly and plainly declare the purposes they desired to accomplish by their choice, and the principles which will direct my administration of their affairs. Those principles I regard as more vital to our institutions, than any that have been called in question since the beginning of our government. That they animate the people of this State, is proven by their triumph in three successive expressions of the popular will, by majorities constantly and regularly increasing; until now they have filled every department of political power in our commonwealth,...
