General Accounting Office, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)53163780 Subject: Educational tests and measurements -- United States -- States -- Costs. Excerpt: . . . In developing their assessments, nearly all states (50) reported providing States Vary in Approach to 9 specific accommodations for students with disabilities. These often Specific Accommodations include Braille, large print, and audiotape versions of their assessments for visually impaired students, as well as additional time and oral administration. About a quarter of the states (12) report offering these assessments in languages other than English, typically Spanish. Both small and larger states scattered across the United States offer assessments in languages besides English. For example, states such as Wyoming and Delaware and large states such as Texas and New York offer Spanish language versions of their assessments. New York and Minnesota offer their assessments in 10 as many as four other languages besides English. While a quarter of the states currently translate or offer assessments in languages other than English, additional states may provide other accommodations for students with limited English proficiency,...
